Turkish PM Awarded Prix de la Fondation

BRUSSELS (Cihan) - Turkish Prime Minister Recep Erdogan was presented with the Prix de la Fondation 2009 in Brussels on Friday.

Erdogan received the award from the hands of Princess Astrid of Belgium and Jacques Barrot, the vice president of the European Commission, during the forum held between June 24 and 27.

The Turkish premier was the guest of honor at the 20th Crans Montana Forum held in Brussels.

The event is widely considered as a prestigious one since it is a summit where the top decision-makers in the political, business, financial and banking worlds meet.
