Tanzanian Sensation Vanessa Mdee was privileged to represent African Women and specifically Tanzania in Morocco.

Vanessa was part of a plenary sessions in Dakhla, Morocco through her foundation dubbed the Udada Foundation

The Singer says that indeed she was happy to represent ladies as well as young girls during the CransMontana forum.

Through her foundation, Vanessa Mdee has empowered young girls and helped them believe in their dreams.

She also stands as a role model to many young girls with big dreams and who desire to be successful.

Last year, through her foundation, Vanessa Mdee launched a girls school shoe line in the spirit of empowering them.

The singer made this announcement on her Instagram page saying that it has always been her dream to create a product that will impress and better the lives of the Tanzanian/ African Girls.

Vanessa said that she made this special shoes design for all the girls who dream big. She also expressed her joy as she thanked God for enabling her to achieve her dream.

The artist is currently among the inspirational and phenomenal woman and her music together with her foundation is of great impact in the society.
